Community Eye Care Secures Investment From Mosaic Health Solutions

CHARLOTTE, N.C. – Mosaic Health Solutions, based in Durham N.C., has made an investment in Community Eye Care, a North Carolina-based vision benefits company that offers vision plans for employer groups and manages vision benefits for health plans. Community Eye Care currently serves more than 800 employers and more than 330,000 customers. Through this strategic investment, Mosaic and Community Eye Care will collaborate on opportunities for growth both inside and outside of North Carolina.

Nearly two-thirds of all Americans need some sort of vision correction,^{1,2} and providing access to cost effective eye exams, glasses and contact lenses is an important part of meeting the health care needs of these individuals. The Community Eye Care provider network is the largest eye network in North Carolina, ensuring unmatched access to eye care. Each doctor in the network meets or exceeds the standards set by the National Committee for Quality Assurance. Community Eye Care's vision plans are popular among consumers because of their simple design, which makes the benefits easy to understand. The company also has a strong reputation for customer and client services.

"Community Eye Care is extremely successful at managing vision networks and services with the level of quality, service and value that consumers expect and deserve," said Maureen O'Connor, president of Mosaic Health Solutions. "Our investment will help to fuel the company's growth and expansion while supporting Mosaic's efforts to make health care simpler and more affordable for consumers."

"Our experience is that consumers want to understand their benefits and they appreciate the simplicity of Community Eye Care," said Dr. Stephen Pollock, chief executive officer of Community Eye Care. "We're pleased to be identified by Mosaic as a leader in the eye care industry. Working together, we will continue to grow while staying focused on the consumer and providing even more value."
